The week in review

Cracking Down On Terror ?

Yitzchak Pass of Chevron, whose 10-month-old daughter Shalhevet was murdered in March by the PLO, was arrested, interrogated, and released by Chevron police Wednesday. The police arrested him while he was on his way to Jerusalem with his wife Oriyah and their one-month-old daughter Renanah Nechamah.

He was questioned about events that occurred during a demonstration, the day before his daughter was murdered. The demonstration was protesting the terrorist attack upon Gilad Zar (the security officer of the Shomron Regional Council, has several siblings living in Chevron; he was wounded in a terrorist attack in March, and two months later was murdered in a second attack).

While being interrogated, Yitzchak became very upset and ran from the room. He was forcibly returned by police, who demanded that he sign a bail guarantee in return for his release. He was released a few minutes later without signing.

PEOPLE of the BOOK

The darkness is so great, that there are even Jews saying that the holy city of Jerusalem should be given away!

Since we find ourselves now in a state of deepest darkness, and "the reckoned days of the coming of Moshiach have passed" [so that he must now come,] and all the negative signs that are described in the Talmud concerning the generation of "the heel (the era) of Moshiach" are seen in our times... Indeed, this darkness has so deepened, that there are even Jewish people who utilize the power of free choice that they were given [with the intent] to "choose life," to choose the idea that territories in Israel, and even in the holy city of Jerusalem - which were chosen by G-d, and "He has declared the power of His works to His people, that He will give them the inheritance of the nations" - shall be given away, G-d forbid, to non-Jews!

The Watchful Eye

A bomb exploded near a car in downtown Jerusalem Tuesday afternoon; there were no fatalities, and one woman was treated for shock. However, police sappers called to the scene of the explosion discovered a much larger bomb - ten kilograms or more - inside the vehicle, which, had it gone off, would very likely have caused serious damage to life and property. Jerusalem Police Chief Mickey Levy noted that it was likely that the terrorists' intention was to kill the policemen who came to deal with the first bomb. The owner of the car, a resident of eastern Jerusalem, has been arrested and is being questioned.

Chevron Under Fire

Two Jews were wounded by terrorist gunfire in Chevron Thursday. Shots were fired at Beit Schneerson from the Shalhevet (Abu Sneineh) Hilltop.

The first victim is an 11-year-old boy with a gunshot wound to the chest. His condition is described as moderate. He was transported to the trauma unit by a military helicopter. His brother, the second victim is a 21-year-old soldier. He was shot in the hand and is listed in light-to-moderate condition.

STUFF you should know

The Butcher Mixing In

Iraqi fingerprints showed up Tuesday for the second time on a Palestinian terrorist operation in Jerusalem. The first was the kidnap and murder of the Pisgat Zeev teenager Yuri Goshchin on July 24, which DEBKAFIle's security experts now believe was perpetrated by Iraqi military intelligence agents or Palestinians under their guidance; the second occurred on Tuesday, August 21, when a would-be huge car bombing disaster failed to come off in a side street in Jerusalem's restaurant district, 10 yards from district police headquarters in the Russian Compound.

DEBKAFIle's terror experts and Palestinian sources report that this bomb was the handiwork of Iraqi agents, who have begun operating freely in Ramallah and the small towns and villages around this West Bank hub, especially El-Bireh. They are the shadowy figures of death hiding behind the "Popular Army Front - Brigades of the Return", an apparently unknown group claiming responsibility for the failed outrage. Observers have noted the proliferation of Iraqi and Syrian flags in many recent Palestinian rallies and funerals on the West Bank alongside the Palestinian and Hizballah banners.

SAY WHAT?

Change Of Heart

"Only the blind, or those whose emotional attachment to their own desires makes it difficult for them to face reality - can continue with talk that makes you want to pinch yourself and say, 'Tell me, can this be real!?' "

Ehud Barak, in Recent speech.
