News and the Jews

The week in review

Justified Terror

Knesset members from right to left, have expressed outrage at a bill presented by the Arab Hadash Party to the Knesset on Monday. The proposed law calls for an amendment to the 1948 Prevention of Terrorism Act which would exempt those who attack armed Israeli civilians living in Yesha from being labeled terrorists. Also under the proposal, assaulting IDF soldiers would not be viewed as "terrorist acts" since under the amendment the IDF is viewed as an "occupying force."

In an interview conducted Tuesday by Dr. Aaron Lerner with Arab MK Issam Makhoul (Hadash), the Israeli parliamentarian said that Jewish civilians of Yesha who carry weapons [issued for self defense] are "part of the occupation forces" and are legitimate targets. Makhoul also said that throwing rocks and firebombs in order to kill someone "is not terrorism" but is a "popular act" seen in protests around the world. In June, a 5-month-old baby boy was killed when an Arab thrown rock slammed into the infant's skull as he sat in the car seat of his family's vehicle near the Shomron community of Eli. Makhoul also said in the interview that as long as Israel does not withdraw to the 1967 cease-fire lines, Arafat does not have to uphold his commitments under the Oslo accords. Therefore violent activities are not breeches of the agreements.

Preparing For The Big Fight

The PA has anti-aircraft missiles, anti-tank missiles and Katyushas stored in the Gaza Strip for use against Israel in a more "advanced" stage of the Oslo war. Israel Radio Arab Affairs Correspondent Avi Yissakharov reported that Israeli security sources believe that the PA would launch Katyusha attacks on nearby Israeli cities such as Ashkelon. Under the Oslo Accords, it is illegal for the PA to have missiles and rockets in its possession.

The Land Belongs To Us By Divine Right Part VI

...What kind of an overlord was he (Balfour) over the Jews? What kind of authority did he have over "the land upon which the eyes of G-d your G-d, gaze from the beginning of the year till year's end"? Our representatives pursuing this false approach inquire of other non-Jews: "Where are the borders of our Holy Land? Up to which geographical boundary does the inheritance of the Jews extend? What are the inner allusions of the "paper" issued by the non-Jew in London?" Why follow such a weak path? We have an ironclad claim: "The power of His work he has declared to His people in giving them the heritage of the nations." Why rely on diplomatic counseling? Why make compromises, plots, conspiracies? Why "Wheel and Deal" and make business transactions as regards what belongs to other nations and what belongs to Israel? The Al- mighty in His Torah has clearly indicated the borders of the Land of Israel,..... This is the land etc...to its borders This is the one single approach which has until now not even been tried. All other versions of diplomacy and statesmanship have been tried and have failed. We have tried behind the scenes diplomacy and financial transactions; we have sought the confidence of influential leaders etc. etc., and today we see to what state of affairs this has led. The only approach which the non-Jews deep down really understand is one based upon our Holy Torah which they also regard with reverence as "the Bible." When a Jewish representative abandons this approach, he abandons his own wealth; he abandons the source of his strength, he abandons his true claim.

From the talks of the Lubavitcher Rebbe Rabbi M. Schneerson 5738 (1978).

Occupied Land ? Part III

When Britain retired from the Mandate, Jewish historical rights which the Mandate had recognized were not canceled; and no new sovereign ever took over in Judea and Samaria or in Gaza.

The legal adviser of the State Department, called upon to defend the Carter claim that Jewish settlement in the West Bank and Gaza was illegal, got over the difficulty by simply ignoring Article 2 of the convention. In his opinion he didn't even mention it. He loftily declared that "the principles of the convention appear applicable whether or not Jordan and Egypt possessed legitimate sovereign rights in respect of the territories." No less.

Further on in his statement, he markedly avoided mentioning that in 1967 it was once again the aggressors of 1948 who attacked Israel (then confined to the narrow armistice lines of 1949). He did mention the Six Day War of 1967, but how? He wrote: "During the June 1967 war, Israeli forces occupied Gaza, the Sinai peninsula, the West Bank, and the Golan Heights." That was all. Not a word about who started the war or about its flaunted gruesome purpose: the destruction of Israel.

"Infidels vs. Islam"

"The infidel countries, led by the United States, invented the excuse and justification for their dirty war against Islam, Muslims, and Islamic movements all over the world"

Sermon delivered last Friday at the Al Aqsa Mosque on the Temple Mount.
