NEWS and the JEWS

The week in review

Human Shields

PLO gunmen used a Beit Jalla school, which is affiliated with the Protestant church of Berlin, as a position for sniping at Israeli vehicles traveling on the Tunnels Road, east of Jerusalem. Periodically, the terrorists used the school as a sniper's nest during hours when school was in session, in order to take advantage of the presence of children as living shields against Israeli return fire. The details of the terrorist sniping activity, including the use of the Protestant school, came to light in documents captured by IDF forces during Operation Defensive Shield.

The Chairman of the Knesset Security and Foreign Affairs Committee, MK David Magen, revealed that the German government has taken the matter seriously enough to file a complaint with the Palestinian Authority for the use PLO gunmen made of the school and students. According to Magen, the German government informed the PA if it turn out that the PLO used the schoolyard as a battlefield, many Germans who make the activities of the school possible will be infuriated.

Fire Fighter Ready For Firefight

The first bullet resistant fire truck in Israel, and possibly the world, has arrived in the Benjamin Regional Council district of the Shomron, Wednesday. The ongoing Oslo War has led to the bullet proofing of many emergency vehicles, including ambulances and first response vehicles.

The new fire truck will be assigned to the emergency station in the community of Ofrah.

Final Solution II

Addressing a Labor Party forum on Wednesday, party leader Defense Minister Binyamin Ben-Eliezer presented his final status plan for an agreement between Israel and the PA. The party leader explained that he is willing to give away the Temple Mount in Jerusalem, turning over sovereignty to the PA.

As far as the capital, Ben-Eliezer envisions dividing eastern and western areas of Jerusalem in a "two state" solution, with certain areas in the Old City, including holy site, remaining under the sovereignty of a special entity, to be under an international control. He made reference to the similarities in the plan supported by former US President Clinton at Camp David II.

STUFF you should know

Congress Fighting Terror

A bill scheduled for debate in the US House of Representatives would severely restrict American relations with the Palestinian Authority and Yasser Arafat. The bill, proposed by Reps. Roy Blunt (R-MO), Gary Ackerman (D-NY), Ben Gilman (R-NY) and Robert Menendez (D-NJ), defines Arafat as responsible for the terrorism against Israel, and stipulates that his personal possession in the U.S., as well as those of the PLO/Palestinian Authority, be frozen. The bill demands a reduction in the number of PA representatives in the US, the denial of visas and other travel restrictions on PA and PLO officials, and the downgrading of the status of PA and PLO offices in the U.S. A similar bill has been proposed in the Senate, but has not yet come up for a vote.

Victory Comes From G-d

May it be G-d's will that all Jews, united "as one man with one heart," resolve to conduct themselves according to the directives of G-d, the L-rd of Hosts, as recorded in His Torah, the Torah of truth and life.

The soldier, who have the great merit of protecting Jewish settlements with self-sacrifice, should continue to fulfill their goal and mission of assuring the well-being and safety of Jews. And this should be done with the knowledge that victory comes not because of one's own strength, but because "we rely upon and invoke the Name of the L-rd our G-d" and "we raise our banner in the name of our G-d."

Based on the talks and writings of The Rebbe Concerning the Integrity of the Land of Israel. (1983)
